

Dear Filmmaker,

In these years, our Community has achieved incredible milestones. We have brought artists who trusted the Wild Filmmaker platform to The Hollywood Reporter and Variety, and to prestigious festivals such as Cannes, Venice, Toronto, and Berlin.

Today, we are happy to inform you that we have created the Worldwide Film Promotion for you, which we presented during the European Film Market in Berlin.

The Worldwide Film Promotion will be the largest international showcase for filmmakers, actors, screenwriters, and independent producers.

By joining the Worldwide Film Promotion, you will have an agent who, throughout 2025, will support your projects by presenting them as works of excellent quality to selectors from major festivals.

With the Worldwide Film Promotion, you will achieve even better results than those you have already reached.

Thank you,
Best regards,

The WILD FILMMAKER Team
